Media is one of the strongest influencers of our kids, and many parents feel ill-equipped to build a media safe home. What about YouTube? Facebook? Gaming? Music? Texting, sexting, and cell phone use and abuse? What about Snapchat and the latest teen movies?

Is it possible to create a media safe home?

Jim Burns believes you can. In this session, Jim Burns will tackle practical questions about media. This fast-paced seminar is filled with laughter, inspiring media, a Biblical perspective on media, as well as practical ideas and information you need to help your kids make wise decisions about media and technology. This seminar is great for parents and grandparents who have children of all ages.

Steve Otey founded Engage Family Ministries to partner with churches and families in the St. Louis area by providing resources, events and experiences to help families grow closer to God and each other. Steve and his wife Sara have been in ministry to youth and families for over 20 years.

Jim Burns is the president of HomeWord and the Executive Director of the HomeWord Center for Youth and Family at Azusa Pacific University. Jim speaks to thousands of people around the world each year. He has close to 2 million resources in print in 20 languages.
